DANVILLE PLAYERS WILL SOON REPORT

Good Timber Signed Up From Which to Select Team.

Danville, March 23.—Manager Steve Griffin, of the "Tobaccoists," is expected to put in his appearance at Danville on next Monday and assume active management of the baseball club for the coming season. Transportation has been forwarded Griffin at his home at Toledo, O., and as soon as he arrives here he will complete arrangements for the coming of the rest of the team. All of the players, with the exception of Mayberry, are expected to report before the first of April.

The line-up of the local club for this season is considered unusually strong, and plenty of good timber has been secured from which a permanent winning aggregation should be chosen.

Those signed for catchers are as follows: Laughlin, who was here last season; Callahan, of Baltimore, Md., and Ferris, a semi-professional of Allegheny, Pa. The pitching staff includes Loos, Morrissey and Mayberry, of last season; Martin Walsh, who has been purchased from the Chicago Americans; Bussey, formerly with Richmond, who was bought from the Eastern Carolina League; Loyd, who was purchased from the Mansfield Club in the Ohio State League; and Hatfield, a semi-professional from Mark Centre, O. For first base, Schrader, who was with Portsmouth last season, and Ben Stevick, of Wilkesburg, Pa., who is highly recommended, have been secured. At second base, Gaston, who was with Chattanooga, Tenn., last season, has been secured, while Larkin, a purchase from St. Louis, has been secured. Griffin, the new manager, will hold down the third pack. The outfielders signed include Tydemann, of last season's club; Hooker, who was with Lynchburg last year; Hinson, who was with the Tri-State League last season, and Snyder, a semi-professional, who played on the Hagerstown, Md., club last year.

Harry Kunkle, a catcher, who was bought by Danville from Roanoke last season, is now reported to be in Richmond warming up, with an expectation of playing here. Kunkle refused to report here last season and was suspended. A contract was sent him this season, but so far he has declined to sign up.

Ray Morgan, an infielder and semi-professional player, who was signed up by Danville, has been released. On April 7 the first exhibition game will be played here, the contest being with the New York Americans. Danville also has dates for exhibition games with the Rochester and Montreal clubs of the Eastern League, and with several clubs in the Carolina League.

SALARY LIMIT MUST BE MAINTAINED HERE

Manager Lawlor Will Be Glad to Have Ison at Second Base; But the Atlanta Player Cannot Dictate Terms.

Another letter came from Jimmy Ison yesterday, in reply to several written him, in Atlanta, by Manager Lawlor, of the Colts, but he gave no satisfaction, and there is no telling now what disposition will be made of his case. Ison, who was slated to play second base for Richmond this year, seems to be trying to dictate terms, and it is understood he is holding out for a salary of $200 per month, which he cannot get in the Virginia League.

Owner Bradley took the matter in hand yesterday, and in his answer to Ison quotes the constitution of the league. Here's about what Ison wrote: "You know my terms, and if you will give me my figure, I'll be ready to report at once." Manager Lawlor explains by saying he will not stand for any violation of the plan to keep the Colts within the salary limit, and

FIFTEEN HUNDRED FANS SEE COLTS AT PRACTICE

Crowd at Baseball Park Yesterday Best Evidence of Interest in Game—Messitt Is Latest Addition to Squad.

Tom Messitt's arrival yesterday leaves but one absentee in the squad. This is Gilligan, who will fight it out with Stanley Bigbie for first base. Manager Lawlor says there is no doubt but that Bigbie will be signed, and Lynchburg has practically agreed to let him leave. Gilligan is not expected until after the first of the month.

Messitt will be in the practice squad to-day, although he is lame from a slight accident received about three weeks ago, and will not be in his best form until he has had time to work over. Messitt and Jack Lawlor are old friends, having played together for a season in the New York State League. Messitt did not know that Lawlor was the "Jack" he had known until he reached Richmond.

Yesterday's practice was the best the Colts have had. The crowd was fully as large as attended many of the mid-week games during the regular season. In the afternoon the squad was divided, and with Frank Bigbie, Buck Hooker, George Cowan and Jack Anthony, who will play shortly to join other teams, held a practice game.

All the pitchers showed up well, and it will be a hard matter for Lawlor to select his four regular slubmen.

Buck Hooker landed for a three-base hit and a home run in the practice game. If he keeps it up a real
